

School of Computer Applications Dublin City University

Agreement on Distribution of Intellectual Property Arising from Undergraduate and Taught Graduate Student Projects

This agreement refers to the project entitled:

which is a project being done by the following students (name and student number):

as part of the following degree programme (degree and year of study):

It is hereby acknowledged that there is a significant contribution to this project from the following staff member:

Should any intellectual property arise as a result of this project then that property will be shared between the above named student(s) and the above named staff member in the ratio of _____ : _____

_____ (in words)

Signed : _____
(student)

Signed : _____
(staff)

Date : _____

Date : _____

(Once copy of this document should be completed and kept by the student and another copy should be completed and kept by the member of staff.)